

FADE IN:

INT. LUXURY APARTMENT - BEDROOM - MORNING

SYDNEY SWEENEY wakes up in an opulent bed, sunlight filtering through expensive curtains. She removes a blue silk sleep mask from her eyes and reaches for her phone on the nightstand.

CLOSE-UP: Phone screen showing hundreds of notifications - Twitter mentions, emails, all from crypto projects and influencers.

SYDNEY looks directly at camera.

SYDNEY

You crypto people are relentless.

She gets out of bed and flicks on the lights, revealing a stunning apartment filled with gift deliveries - flowers, teddy bears, chocolate boxes, all scattered throughout.

INT. LUXURY APARTMENT - LIVING AREA - CONTINUOUS

Sydney walks past a table laden with elaborate flower arrangements.

CLOSE-UP: A card attached to white roses reads: "More like Sydney Sween-ETH! XOXO, Vitalik"

CLOSE-UP: Another card on tulips: "HODL me close! - CryptoPunks team"

SYDNEY

(sighing)

Everybody wants me to...

She trails off, grabbing a remote control.

SYDNEY (CONT'D)

Everyone's trying to get me to rep their project or buy their token.

She presses a button. Motorized shades begin rising, revealing floor-to-ceiling windows.

REVEAL: A GUY IN MILADY T-SHIRT standing on the balcony, pressed against the glass.

(immediately)

Nope.

She hits the button again. The shades drop back down.

CLOSE-UP: The guy's hands appear under the shade - first one finger (wait!), then both hands pressed together in prayer position.

INT. LUXURY APARTMENT - HALLWAY - MORNING

Sydney stands by the elevator, dressed and ready to leave.

SYDNEY
There's just too much going on in crypto for anybody to keep track of.

She presses the elevator button.

DING!

INT. ELEVATOR - CONTINUOUS

The doors open. Sydney steps inside and turns around to find herself surrounded by CRYPTO ENTHUSIASTS in various project t-shirts and actual MASCOT COSTUMES - including people dressed as Pepe and Doge.

SYDNEY
(to camera)
I don't have time to research every project. How could I possibly choose just one?

All the crypto people turn to look at her hopefully.

(firmly)
No.

DING!

The elevator doors open.

INT. APARTMENT BUILDING - LOBBY - CONTINUOUS

Sydney walks off the elevator.

SYDNEY
I mean, come on. I'm-

DELIVERY GUY (O.S.)
Sydney Sweeney?

A DELIVERY GUY approaches with another massive flower arrangement.

DELIVERY GUY
Special delivery from the Solana Foundatio—!

SYDNEY
(cutting him off)
Not interested.

She continues walking toward the revolving door, where NEVIN
FREEMAN stands as the doorman/bellhop.

NEVIN
Morning, Miss Sweeney.

SYDNEY
(walking through the revolving door)
That's why I use Decentralized
Token Folios built on Reserve.
DTFs are just... easy.

EXT. APARTMENT BUILDING - MORNING

Sydney exits onto the sidewalk.

VOICE (O.S.)
Sydney!

She turns. Camera reveals a LITTLE GIRL standing in a line of people waiting for something.

The little girl shakes her head and points to the GUY next to her - another crypto enthusiast who's now jumping up and down excitedly.

CRYPTO GUY
(freaking out)
It's really her! Sydney! I have this amazing DeFi project—

Sydney keeps walking toward a waiting limousine.

SYDNEY
(to camera)
DTFs are easy because I get diversified exposure without the research. A whole portfolio with like, zero work.

She reaches the limo.

SYDNEY (CONT'D)
Perfect for a busy woman like me.

INT. LIMOUSINE - CONTINUOUS

Sydney settles into the plush leather seats.

SYDNEY

It really is that easy. One token, diversified crypto exposure.

LIMO DRIVER (O.S.)

Where to, Miss Sweeney?

The DRIVER turns around. It's VITALIK BUTERIN, grinning mischievously.

VITALIK

Did you get my flowers?

Sydney's eyes widen in shock as we...

FADE TO BLACK.

TITLE CARD: "DTFs built on Reserve."

TITLE CARD: "Index Investing, Meet Crypto."

FADE OUT.
